

JB

RD 10/27/75

STATINTL

20 August

Wednesday

STATINTL

1. HSC Security: I learned that two of the first HSC interviewees had been interviewed in a spare room in Les Aspin's office which had thin walls that did not reach the ceiling. The occupants of the adjoining room stopped typing when the interview started, suggesting some interest. I reminded Emily of security requirements, and she promised that future interviews would be held in secure offices. She apologized; neither she nor Field thought of it.
(D/OS)

OS 5 7641